Important NOTE about Fajar Time!!!

According to Quran & Sunnah, the fast begins at TULU-E-FAJAR (dawn), and according to majority of the most authentic, reliable Scholars of Islam and astronomers, the TULU-E-FAJAR takes place on the 18 degree (Astronomical twilight), when the Sun's center is 18 degree below the horizon before rising, so our timetable is based on the 18 degree's method. In SUMMER, from 21st May to 22nd July, the Night duration is very short hence the Sun does not go down to the point of 18 degrees, which means that in these two months the Fajar time does not even enter, so in this period Islamic Jurists (Fuqaha) have given 4 methods to estimate Fajar time. 1) Nearest day. 2) Nearest country. 3) Half of the night. 4) 1/7 of the night.

For Ramadhan for the convenience of the people we choose 4th method till 22nd July only, as after that Sun does reach 18 degrees before rising which is Fajar time.....please speak to Imam for further explanation.
